

Welcome to our Privacy Policy

-- Your privacy is critically important to us.

It is King's College London Fencing Club's policy to respect your privacy regarding any information we may collect while operating our website. This Privacy Policy applies to kclfencing.co.uk/ (hereinafter, "us", "we", or "kclfencing.co.uk/"). We respect your privacy and are committed to protecting personally identifiable information you may provide us through the Website. We have adopted this privacy policy ("Privacy Policy") to explain what information may be collected on our Website, how we use this information, and under what circumstances we may disclose the information to third parties. This Privacy Policy applies only to information we collect through the Website and does not apply to our collection of information from other sources.

This Privacy Policy sets forth the general rules and policies governing your use of our Website.

Depending on your activities when visiting our Website, you may be required to agree to additional terms and conditions.

- Website Visitors

Like most website operators, King's College London Fencing Club collects non-personally-identifying information of the sort that web browsers and servers typically make available, such as the browser type, language preference, referring site, and the date and time of each visitor request. King's College London Fencing Club's purpose in collecting non-personally identifying information is to better understand how King's College London Fencing Club's visitors use its website. From time to time, King's College London Fencing Club may release non-personally-identifying information in the aggregate, e.g., by publishing a report on trends in the usage of its website.

King's College London Fencing Club also collects potentially personally-identifying information like Internet Protocol (IP) addresses for logged in users. King's College London Fencing Club only discloses logged in user and commenter IP addresses under the same circumstances that it uses and discloses personally-identifying information as described below.

- Gathering of Personally-Identifying Information

Certain visitors to King's College London Fencing Club's websites choose to interact with King's College London Fencing Club in ways that require King's College London Fencing Club to gather personally-identifying information. The amount and type of information that King's College London Fencing Club gathers depends on the nature of the interaction. For example, we ask visitors who sign up for a newsletter at <http://kclfencing.co.uk/> to provide their name and email address.

- Security

The security of your Personal Information is important to us, but remember that no method of transmission over the Internet, or method of electronic storage is 100% secure. While we strive to use commercially acceptable means to protect your Personal Information, we cannot guarantee its absolute security.

- Links To External Sites

Our Service may contain links to external sites that are not operated by us. If you click on a third party link, you will be directed to that third party's site. We strongly advise you to review the Privacy Policy and terms and conditions of every site you visit.

We have no control over, and assume no responsibility for the content, privacy policies or practices of any third party sites, products or services.

- Protection of Certain Personally-Identifying Information

King's College London Fencing Club discloses potentially personally-identifying and personally-identifying information only to those of its employees, contractors and affiliated organizations that (i) need to know that information in order to process it on King's College London Fencing Club's behalf or to provide services available at King's College London Fencing Club's website, and (ii) that have agreed not to disclose it to others. Some of those employees, contractors and affiliated organizations may be located outside of your home country; by using King's College London Fencing Club's website, you consent to the transfer of such information to them. King's College London Fencing Club will not rent or sell potentially personally-identifying and personally-identifying information to anyone. Other than to its employees, contractors and affiliated organizations, as described above, King's College London Fencing Club discloses potentially personally-identifying and personally-identifying information only in response to a subpoena, court order or other governmental request, or when King's College London Fencing Club believes in good faith that disclosure is reasonably necessary to protect the property or rights of King's College London Fencing Club, third parties or the public at large.

If you are a registered user of <http://kclfencing.co.uk/> and have supplied your email address, King's College London Fencing Club may occasionally send you an email to tell you about new features, solicit your feedback, or just keep you up to date with what's going on with King's College London Fencing Club and our products. If you send us a request (for example via a support email or via one of our feedback mechanisms), we reserve the right to publish it in order to help us clarify or respond to your request or to help us support other users. King's College London Fencing Club takes all measures reasonably necessary to protect against the unauthorized access, use, alteration or destruction of potentially personally-identifying and personally-identifying information.

- Aggregated Statistics

King's College London Fencing Club may collect statistics about the behavior of visitors to its website. King's College London Fencing Club may display this information publicly or provide it to others. However, King's College London Fencing Club does not disclose your personally-identifying information.

- Cookies

To enrich and perfect your online experience, King's College London Fencing Club uses "Cookies", similar technologies and services provided by others to display personalized content, appropriate advertising and store your preferences on your computer.

A cookie is a string of information that a website stores on a visitor's computer, and that the visitor's browser provides to the website each time the visitor returns. King's College London Fencing Club uses cookies to help King's College London Fencing Club identify and track visitors, their usage of <http://kclfencing.co.uk/>, and their website access preferences. King's College London Fencing Club visitors who do not wish to have cookies placed on their computers should set their browsers to refuse cookies before using King's College London Fencing Club's websites, with the drawback that certain features of King's College London Fencing Club's websites may not function properly without the aid of cookies.

By continuing to navigate our website without changing your cookie settings, you hereby acknowledge and agree to King's College London Fencing Club's use of cookies.

- E-commerce

Those who engage in transactions with King's College London Fencing Club – by purchasing King's College London Fencing Club's services or products, are asked to provide additional information, including as necessary the personal and financial information required to process those transactions. In each case, King's College London Fencing Club collects such information only insofar as is necessary or appropriate to fulfill the purpose of the visitor's interaction with King's College London Fencing Club. King's College London Fencing Club does not disclose personally-identifying information other than as described below. And visitors can always refuse to supply personally-identifying information, with the caveat that it may prevent them from engaging in certain website-related activities.

- Privacy Policy Changes

Although most changes are likely to be minor, King's College London Fencing Club may change its Privacy Policy from time to time, and in King's College London Fencing Club's sole discretion. King's College London Fencing Club encourages visitors to frequently check this page for any changes to its Privacy Policy. Your continued use of this site after any change in this Privacy Policy will constitute your acceptance of such change.
